How did you find out about our host family opportunity?

Flint Firebirds Hockey expects host families as well as players to abide by ALL the rules set forth in the “Blue Book” – a copy of which will be provided to you. Please read over the list below of basic rules pertaining to all host families.

HOST FAMILIES RULES

1. Host families should NEVER call in a player sick to school – All school absences must be cleared by Flint Firebird coaching staff.
2. Host families should never refer players to their own physicians without approval of the Firebird medical staff.
3. Please report any curfew violations to the coach as soon as they occur.
4. Players are not allowed to leave the Flint/Grand Blanc area without approval of coaches.
5. If there is a gathering of more than 4 players in a home, a coach needs to be notified. If this happens at your home, please call or email a coach to let them know-preferably ahead of time.
6. There are no girls allowed in the host family home if the host family is not at home.
7. If in doubt about anything that is happening with your player – please call your housing contact and/or Flint Firebirds Hockey staff member and ask.
